To Our Customers

It is a pleasure to mail you this descriptive Price List and we hope that it will serve to our mutual advantage.

Our stock of plants are larger than ever and you can be sure of receiving stock that will please your customers.

We try to advise our customers as to the varieties of Camellias and Azaleas best suited for their particular locality.

There are some varieties that are well suited for certain sections of the country whereas that same variety will not grow well in other parts.

We extend you a cordial invitation to visit our nursery at any time. A visit during the Azalea or Camellia blooming season will be especially interesting to you.

Sincerely,

GLEN F. HARRIS,

General Manager

CAMELLIA JAPONICA

This season we are offering a greater variety of the rare and the standard Camellias than ever before. You will note that we have attempted to give an accurate description of the blooms and habit of growth of each variety of Camellias we have to offer. The majority of our plants are well budded and stocky due to the fact that most of them have grown in practically full sun.

ADOLPH AUDUSSON SPECIAL

A beautiful sport of Adolph Audusson Variant. Flowers larger than the parent, semi-double, red, speckled with white. Fairly accurate in formation and color but sometimes there will be flowers the same as the Adolph Audusson Variant. A rather open grower and when planted in full sun will reach height of 8 to 10 feet. Mid-season.

12-18 in., 1 yr. graft.....	B&B	$ 7.50
-----------------------------	-----	---------

ADOLPH AUDUSSON VARIANT

Same as Adolph Audusson Special except flowers are marbled with white rather than speckled and usually not quite as large. Mid-season.

ALBA PLENA

One of the oldest and most beautiful, full double, pure white Camellias that we know. We think it the finest white Camellia on the market today. It is well known throughout the South and not recommended to be planted in the open in the northern part of the Southern states. Very compact grower with maximum height 15 to 20 feet. Early bloomer.

CHIYODA-NISHIKI (Princess Nagaskie, Killarney King, Princess Bacahachie, Mallott's Variegated)

Medium large, semi-double, pink marbled with white, sometimes having solid pink flowers. This plant has a very unusual habit of growth, being willowy and weeping like, with dark green crinkled foliage, sometimes showing variegation. This variety is limited in height due to its weeping growth but will attain a height and spread of 8 to 10 feet. Mid-season.

DAIKAGURA—PINK

We believe a sport of Daikagura Variegated, because its formation and growth habits are the same except that the flowers are deep rose-pink. Early.

12-18 in.....	B&B	2.50
---------------	-----	------

DAIKAGURA—VARIEGATED

Usually begins blooming in September. Formation very irregular, some of early blooms being double, while others are peony form. Deep rose-pink variegated with white spots or stripes. As are most early varieties, this one is recommended for partial shade. Will reach height of 8 to 10 feet.

12-18 in., 1 yr. graft.....	B&B	3.50
-----------------------------	-----	------

DEBUTANTE (Sarah C. Hastie)

A very lovely, delicate, soft pink, peony form, which is highly recommended for the florist trade. Very fast, upright growth with light green foliage. We have seen these plants attain a height of 20 feet or more. Early.

DONCKELAARI

This is an old variety and suitable for the colder climates. We believe it will stand near zero weather and bloom almost perfect. It has many sports and varies from solid red to ninety per cent white variegations. A slow growing variety but we have seen plants as much as 18 feet high. Mid-season.

12-18 in., 1 yr. graft.....	B&B	6.50
18-24 in., 3 yr. graft.....	B&B	10.00

DUCHESS OF SUTHERLAND

Large, semi-double white having pink stripe on one petal, sometimes on back of petal. Long, medium green foliage, spreading growth. Normal height of growth, under favorable conditions, 10 to 12 feet. Late.

12-18 in., 2 yr. graft.....	B&B	5.90
18-24 in., 2 yr. graft.....	B&B	7.50

ELEANOR FRANCHETTI

This is an old variety which for some reason has lost its popularity. It has large cone-shaped flowers, white with pink spots or stripes, with an occasional solid pink bloom. Its habit of growth is fast and spreading, reaching a height of 10 to 12 feet. We think it deserves to be in every collection. Mid-season.

8-12 in., liners.....	BR	.75
12-15 in., liners.....	BR	1.00

ELEANOR HAYGOOD

Beautiful, soft, delicate pink flower resembling Alba Plena in formation and size. Double, showing a few stamens, light green foliage. Mid-season.

MOBILE, ALABAMA

EMPERATOR (French)

This is a rather new and very choice variety which was imported from France in recent years and not to be confused with the many other Emperators listed. It is the largest, dark red, full peony flower of any Camellia we know, sometimes measuring 6 inches in diameter and having as many as 400 fully developed petals. Very large, dark green foliage, fast and spreading growth habits. Mid-season.

12-18 in., 1 yr. graft.....	B&B	7.50
-----------------------------	-----	------

EMPEROR OF RUSSIA

18-24 in.....	B&B	4.00

FINLANDIA (Dearest)

Large, semi-double, white flowers with prominent yellow stamens. Growth habits are very unusual as it is inclined to grow rather stiff and espaliered.

18-24 in., 2 yr. graft.....	B&B	7.50
-----------------------------	-----	------

FLAME

Large, semi-double, crinkled crepe-like, deep vivid red flowers with golden yellow stamens, making a very beautiful contrast with the dark, glossy, green foliage. Fast and upright grower reaching height of 10-12 feet. Mid-season.

12-18 in., 1 yr. graft.....	B&B	2.50
-----------------------------	-----	------

GIGANTEA (Mary Belle Glennon, Jolly Rogers, Jacksoni, Kelwingtonia, Magnolia King, Emperor Wilhelm)

Large, semi-double flower which comes in many forms and variations of red and white. In propagating, we have tried to separate these colors but haven't been able to do so. These flowers will come from solid red to fifty per cent white on the same limb. Wide, spreading, irregular growth with large dark green foliage. Maximum height of 15 to 20 feet. Mid-season.

AZALEAS

We are offering for sale this season the very finest Azaleas in most of the standard varieties. Most of our Azaleas are grown in the field and are heavier than average plants, having more limbs and more buds. They are far superior to those that are grown in slat shades. Part of our Azalea Liners are grown in the slat shades and will be large enough to have bloom buds and will be old and strong enough to be transplanted to yard or field this Fall.

This season we can only furnish the sizes shown under each variety.
